- 1 Unique large hand painted Civil War sled 17X53. Wood body & side rails with attached iron runners and padded leather seat. Side rails painted "Col Ellsworth" in large white/red block letters. Seat with red/wht/blue flag "Lincoln and Johnson", above flag is "Zouave" in white. Initials B.O.D. are red/wht, as is the date 1887. The colors in the date are a bit deeper/brighter than the other lettering, & it was no doubt added at a later time, most likely for a veterans reunion where the soldier displayed the sled. Overall fine condition, minor wear to seat (mainly at edges) & wear as expected to paint on rails from passing through snow. A phenomenal item, & an unusual piece of American folk art. 9,750.
- 2 Superb 6" scrimshaw whales tooth. Portrait "WARREN" next to Bunker Hill monument. The small flags flying at top would date this to the period of the Monument dedication in 1843. Reverse Liberty, globe, shield, large American flag wrapped around top. Portions of work highlighted in red. General Joseph Warren was the American commander at Bunker Hill, and was killed there on June 17 1775. Excellent condition, 100% unconditionally guaranteed authentic. 3,850.
- 3 The third of a group of three authentically signed Annie Oakley cabinet photos that I purchased a couple of years ago. Very rare image of her with shotgun and rabbit, by Wood, NY, circa 1886-87. Signed in ink on reverse "Compliments. Of Annie Oakley". Some light soiling, repaired crack at lower left corner of mount (not info photo). Signature guaranteed authentic of course. I don't recall ever seeing this image on the market. 7,750.
- 4 Spectacular 6 1/2" carved ivory bust on ivory base. Fine likeness of Crockett in coonskin cap, jacket with deerskin collar, and sporting his characteristic pointed sideburns. Mid 19th century circa 1840's-70's, excellent condition. Please note that while I have read in the popular press that the name Davy was a 20th century addition to the Crockett legend, that is nonsense. He was known as Davy during his lifetime, as attested by the earliest Nashville "Davy Crockett Almanack" of 1835 (printed in 1834). Photocopies from the famous almanacs included. With the exception of the famous almanacs 19th century Crockett material is practically nonexistent. 5,950.
- 5 Rare 7 X 9 1/2" broadside poem "American Taxation", by L. Deming, Boston. Talks of Lord North, George III, the previous peace and bounty in North America, unfair taxation, troops sent to ravage and plunder, oppression of tyrants, determination of rebels to fight, Washington, Green, Gates, Putnam, citizen soldiers rallying to the cause, Monmouth, Brandywine, Burgoyne, Howe, Tories, American Congress, etc. Minor bit of foxing, fine plus. 1,750.
- 6 Gilt stamped leather bound "Autograph" album by Lippincott, Philadelphia. 6X9. Inscribed in front "W. Thaw paid $20 for this in 1864 at closing out of US Sanitary Fair, Allegheny City, Diamond Square". Contains signatures with home cities/states of about 200 Senators, Congressmen and dignitaries, 2 or 3 to a page. The first page is Abraham Lincoln and Gideon Welles. This was assembled and sold (probably auctioned) to benefit the fair. Later owned and inscribed by Lloyd Ostendorf in 1967. I bought this from Lloyd 15-20 years ago. Some wear at spine, contents excellent, all signatures very bold and clear. 7,500.
- 7 Superb late 19th century Northwest coast whalebone dagger, inlaid abalone eyes on frowning face, substantial 18" length, excellent, a beauty! 2,750.
- 8 Probably unique French & Indian war snuffbox, tortoise shell lid with relief molded bust "Major General Wolfe", lettering and floral scrolls inlaid in silver, rolled Sheffield plate rim. A style I haven't seen before. 3,250.
- 9 Very rare Currier & Ives "Gold Mining in California". Ten miners working sluice, hose, rocker box, picks, shovels, pans. Group of their cabins in clearing below mountain peak. In excellent crossed corner frame (not shown). Excellent condition with bold colors, full margins. Couple minor spots of foxing in margin. 3,500.
- 10 Oil painting on canvas 29X36 circa 1830's-40's depicting a New England manufacturer sitting at desk signing a stack of uncut sheets of banknotes. His factory is seen out the window, a 5 story building, probably a textile mill. The sheets show one and two dollar denominations, but the details don't allow identification. Relined on later canvas, excellent. A very rare subject. 9,000.
- 11 I've sold a number of slave sale broadsides, but this is the first "Slaves Wanted" type that I've seen. 8 1/2 X 12 (sight), double matted in fine 13 X 17 custom frame (not shown). William Adams, Clay County MO, 1860. Small hole in A of Wanted, basically superb condition. 3,500.
- 12 Large original drawing in crayon and pencil "Sketched at Yankee Florida Training Camp - Harry J Craden". Ruth and Gehrig holding bats, flanking the diminutive Miller Huggins. Mint condition in 27 X 34 custom frame. Late 1920's (Huggins died in 1929) 3,250.
- 13 Gorgeous large brilliant multicolor oil on canvas 24 X 40, circa 1870's. Great scene of Nevada City Calif, detailed view of dozens of buildings, large bridge left center, hills in background. Excellent condition, laid to masonite in superb 32 X 47 gilt frame. A wonderful historic California painting. 6,250.
- 14 Previously unseen large 25X29 silk bandana, black equestrian portrait on white background inside wide red border. Titled "Capt Nath Lyon USA". As Capt of 2nd US Infantry Lyon was responsible for capturing the rebel forces under Gen D M Frost and saving the St Louis arsenal from falling into Confederate hands. A few days later he was appointed Brigadier General, only to be killed three months later at Wilson's Creek. Near mint, early 1861, a superb rarity. 2,500.
- 15 Rare Dutch silver campaign medal for Battle of Doggersbank, 1781. Betts #585. This North Sea engagement between the British and Dutch fleets on Aug 5 1781 is considered to have aided the victory of the French fleet at Yorktown a month later. The first official Dutch campaign medal. 850.
- 16 Harrison 1840 log cabin brooch 1840, black/wht, overall superb condition with just the slightest of tiny flaws in background. Shank of pin missing as usual. 1,275.

- 18 Extremely rare celluloid stud "Harrison & Success 1896". Until this piece showed up last year I had no idea that any thought was given to a third Harrison campaign. 750.
- 19 Very rare 5/8 blue/gold cello "Suffrage Means Prohibition", the idea being that if women were given the vote, then the success of prohibition was guaranteed. Bright and mint. 1,200.
- 20 Rare Zachary Taylor shell medalet "Gen Taylor Never Surrenders - Palo Alto - Resaca de la Palma - Monterey Buena Vista" ZT 1848-19, XF 1,250.
- 21 Previously unseen ivory telescope Stanhope viewer with microphotograph view of Heenan-Sayers fight 1860. 350.
- 22 Very nice gold ring with finely detailed 1" shell cameo George IV, 1820's. 285.
- 23 Possibly unique Grand Cross of the Imperial Chinese Order of the Double Dragon, reverse engraved "1st Lieut Clifton Comly Kinney-US Army-China Relief Expedition-1900". Sapphire center with coral bead at top. With official communications from War Dept to Lt Kinney, comprising notifications from State Dept that Chinese govt has conferred medals on six US Army officers who were actually on duty protecting the Forbidden City during occupation of Peking. All 6 named in the letters. With only six such medals having been awarded, it is very likely that this is the only one known today. Medal perfect, a little wear to neck ribbon. 3,850.
- 24 Extremely rare CDV "Wilson Chinn, a branded slave from Louisiana, exhibiting instruments of torture used to punish slaves". By Kimball, NY, 1863. Chinn is branded on forehead and wearing collar with prongs two feet long, stiff iron leg brace from thigh to ankle, heavy shackles. Not to be confused with another more common view of Chinn (which is also rare). I have never seen this one before. Minor touch of foxing, overall still excellent. 3,750.
- 25 Unique 3/4" gold brooch with miniature daguerreotype of a painting of a horse. An early piece, identical in style to the American political brooches of 1840. 600.

- 30 Nice pair gold quartz cufflinks, 19th century, hairline cracks in quartz panels. 350.
- 31 Original tintype Custer, CDV size in gilt edged mount. Tinted cheeks, superb condition. This well known Brady image is relatively common as a CDV (Katz 78), but is exceedingly rare as a tintype (Katz 78V). A great historical image, guaranteed genuine. Minor soil to mount. 5,750.
- 32 Large 19 1/2" Bowie knife with heavy 14" double edged spearpoint blade. Wood grip secured by 3 iron rivets with copper flanges. Blade stamped in large block letters "PRESENTED. TO. W. C. McCORD. BY SMITH."

- RAYMOND, COLVIN & RUTLAND". In small letters by ricasso "J D Colvin - Maker - Sioux City IA". With about 50 pages of photocopies of info on the McCord family, Iowa Militia Regiments and Colvin. William McCord of Manteno enlisted Oct '62 in Co D of the Northern Border Brigade. George Colvin, a gunsmith, and John D Colvin, a mechanic, resided together in Sioux city for decades. The identities of Smith, Raymond and Rutland are unknown. Presumably they and Colvin were friends of McCord at the time of his enlistment. A massive fighting knife by a previously unknown maker. Light scattered pitting, fine plus to excellent. 4,850.

- 919 Superb large Spanish American War painting, signed "R F Zogbaum '98" (Rufus Fairchild Zogbaum, American, 1849-1925). Group of American soldiers mingling with Cuban citizens on dirt street in middle of town. Adobe & wood buildings, ox carts, wagons, dog, lady on horse selling fruit to soldiers, lady at right with parasol talking to handsome Cuban gent, Negro boy in right foreground with sack over his back. Gouache & watercolor on paper, 18 X 29 (sight), pristine condition, in 29 X 40 gilt frame (not shown). A wonderful piece. 2,350.
- 920 Nice blk/wt music 1865 325.
- 921 Very large oil painting Pershing on rolled canvas 37 X 95. He's actually life sized at 6' tall. White stars on deep blue border, spread eagle at top, painted "tassels" at bottom to simulate a curtain or shade. Overall superb condition, minimal light wear as expected at extremities. 1,250.
- 922 Really neat oil on canvas in gilt frame 15 X 20, mid 19th century. Colonial soldier on rock overlooking Hudson (?) River, with his back turned to us. He's watching a spectacular sunset of 13 red/whit stripes with patch of blue sky coming through in upper left. Indistinct signature lower right. A very moving scene, exc. 1,200.

- 927 Unusual sheet music with Pres Taft for reunion. Grant-Lee-Gordon. Edge flaws, VG-fine 100.
- 928 Original large pen & ink 12 X 16 signed Frank Gillette. Scenes on board USS Olympia. Quarter deck, look out on forward bridge, relaxing after dinner, hauling down flag at sunset. Minor soil at extreme edges, excellent, unique. 600.

- 930 "The Rise and Fall of the Confederate Government" by Jefferson Davis, 1881. Two thick volumes, over 1,500 pages complete. Gilt stamped CSA seal on brown cloth bindings. Typical light wear to extremities, slight chipping at one spine, generally fine. 150.
- 931 Superb 101 Ranch poster 28 X 40 in nice oak frame 34 X 47. Buffalo hunt, steer wrestling, parade, etc. Near mint. 4,500.
- 932 Superb full color poster by Hoen, Baltimore, 24 X 34. "Distinguished Visitors to Buffalo Bills Wild West, London 1887" surrounding portrait of Cody. Five kings, Gladstone, Prince of Wales. Excellent condition, few insignificant small edge tears. 4,950.
- 933 Oversized cabinet photo by Choate, Carlisle PA. Group of 28 students at famous Carlisle Indian School. Paper label reverse with their names & tribes. Excellent 175.
- 934 Desirable 1852 large folio N. Currier "The Prairie Hunter-One Rubbed Out". Double matted in very nice custom frame 24 X 29. From painting by A F Tait. Full 2" margins, generally superb condition with just the slightest bit of toning in the sky. 3,950.

Part of bound volume of six issues July-Dec 1874, 240 pages. Print 9X12 in fine condition. Small designation "Proof" in corner. 19X25, mint but for insignificant soil in margins. Note on mat says it came from Kennedy Galleries. I suspect this might be a restrike from the latter part of 19th century. If its from 1839 it has to be worth $5,000, but I'll price it at 975.
- 942 Very rare Buffalo Bill broadside, blank reverse, wide margins. 6X20 (sight), double matted in nice 16X26 oak frame. At left center are small portraits Annie Oakley, Johnny Baker and other more generic members of show. Near mint. 2,250.

Accompanied by boldly written LS addressed to a probate judge in Valencia County, enclosing the proclamation and signed by Wallace. 5,750.
- 958 Extremely high relief polychromed terracotta plaque, Mexican priest & revolutionary Father Miguel Hidalgo. His 1810 military campaign against the ruling Spanish forces (and his execution in 1811) were the beginning of the War for Mexican Independence. This dates from latter half of 19th century. 300.
- 959 Terrific multi litho 13X20 (sight) in nice frame. "Luxury in the Klondike", miners in camp with boxes of Freud Yeasting Co (Detroit) products-flour, vegetables, Silver Yeast. 965 Winchester envelope, multicolor, postally excellent.

HARPER'S FERRY.

Composed and sung by Harriet Fox, the celebrated Banjoist, at Harper's National Concert Hall, Am. Have you noticed anything?

At Harper's Ferry, the "Home of the Nation" - the place where the first shot of the war was fired. You will find it a most interesting place. The songs were composed and sung at the same place.

CHORUS.

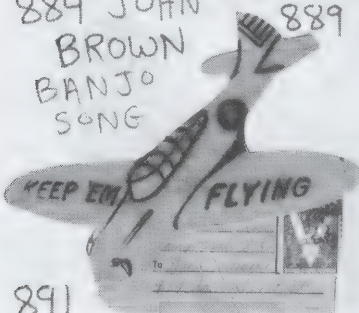

There is something new,
That we have found,
That is new to us,
That is new to us.

Old songs that were forgotten, and new ones we find.
If the people of the nation, and the people of the world,
With eyes and ears, and hearts, and minds, and souls,
But the people of the nation, and the people of the world,
Chorus: There is something new.

There is something new to be seen, and a new song to sing.
When the people of the nation, and the people of the world,
With eyes and ears, and hearts, and minds, and souls,
But the people of the nation, and the people of the world,
Chorus: There is something new.

Now, while folks all are sleeping, my song is new to you:
The song of the people of the nation, and the people of the world,
The President I am going to sing, to an officer I will say,
And if the song is new to you, and the song is new to you,
But the people of the nation, and the people of the world,
Chorus: There is something new.
